Hi-

I'm a stay at home mom of a five month old and a two year old. My schedule is so erratic that I won't be able to commit to a team in my area. Are you in a similar situation? We could form a team to encourage each other and to brainstorm about ways to get moving with the kids in tow! Have a great day, and keep moving!

This sounds like a great idea. I am a new mom of a four month old little monster named Tristan. My husbands in the military so he is always gone, so it would be nice to have some alternative support!!!
